

COLLECTING AND CONNECTING:

SUPPORTING PEOPLE TO LIVE WELL WITH DEMENTIA

National Museum Cardiff, Cathays Park

Tuesday 1
December
9.30am - 3.30pm

Cost: £20

which includes lunch & refreshments

Who would benefit from this training opportunity?

Museum and heritage staff, care setting activity providers, anyone responsible for developing activities and resources for people with dementia.

Booking:

Email: sharon.ford@museumwales.ac.uk
for a booking form or ring 029 2057 3663

Includes:

- Practical ideas for reminiscence and memory activities – sourcing objects, communication approaches, theme ideas, the use of digital technology
- Making your organisation more dementia friendly
- Take part in an awareness session and become a Dementia Friend
- Tips from organisations and individuals on how they are supporting people to live well with dementia

Alzheimer's Society

Leading the fight against dementia

national museum wales cymru amgueddfa