

Dementia Friendly Screenings

Tinted Lens: A Festival of the Mind, Memory & Ageing

Wed 17 May 2017

Chapter's Dementia Friendly screenings are a great opportunity for people living with dementia to enjoy a film in a relaxed friendly environment. The screenings are shown without adverts and have slightly brighter lighting throughout the auditorium. The screenings are open to everyone.

Ticket price: £4.50 including a cup of tea or coffee. Tickets for carers are free. To book a ticket please call our box office on 029 2030 4400 or book online. Wheelchair spaces are limited. For more information please call the Box Office, email the project coordinator at Ellie.Russell@chapter.org or visit www.chapter.org/dementia-friendly-screenings

Their Finest (12A)

10.30am, Cinema 1

In Wartime Britain, Catrin Cole lands herself a job screenwriting and finds that making a film that will warm the hearts of the nation involves as much drama behind the camera as there is onscreen.

Calamity Jane: Singalong (U)

2.00pm, Cinema 1

In this classic musical comedy, Jane (Doris Day) spends her days cussing out Wild Bill Hickock, but her life as a wild west hero is threatened when a friend threatens to make her into a 'lady'.

Join us for a musical extravaganza as we invite you to SINGALONG to this 1953 film spectacular. This screening includes a vocal warm up from special guests, Goldies Cymru!

Forget Me Not: The Documentary + Live Performances from the Forget Me Not Chorus & Only Men Aloud

5.30pm, Cinema Foyer + 6:00pm, Cinema 1

Join us for the premiere of this uplifting short film about the work of the Forget Me Not Chorus, who offer weekly singing sessions to help combat the loneliness and isolation of living with dementia.

The Forget-Me-Nots will be performing live in the Cinema Foyer prior to the event and will be joined by award winning Welsh choir, Only Men Aloud, who recently chose Alzheimer's Society Cymru as their charity of the year.

Early Silent Comedy Shorts with Live Musical Accompaniment

4.00pm, Cinema 2

Laurel & Hardy struggle to sell Christmas trees, and Buster Keaton battles to build a house in these early shorts, accompanied by pianist Paul Shallcross.

Mad To Be Normal Tinted Lens Screening

7.30pm, Cinema 1

in 1965, 'high priest of anti-psychiatry' RD Laing established Kingsley Hall as a medication-free community. His methods flew in the face of a medical establishment that considered him a dangerous radical. Regular ticket prices apply.

+Join us for a free Tinted Lens panel discussion with Director Robert Mullan after the film to explore the mind, perception and consciousness.

Dementia Awareness Day

Tinted Lens: A Festival of the Mind, Memory & Ageing

Wed 17 May 2017

Everyone is welcome to celebrate Dementia Awareness Week by joining us for a day of screenings, workshops, performances, awareness raising, a Virtual Reality experience, guest speakers and more. All activities are FREE unless otherwise stated, but tickets must be booked and collected from the Box Office.

Dementia Friends

Free Information Sessions

9.30am, 12.00pm, 3.00pm
Everyman Rehearsal Room

During these friendly and interactive sessions, you will increase your understanding of dementia and think about the small things you can do to make a difference to people affected by dementia in your community.

A Walk Through Dementia, Virtual Reality Experience

1.30pm-7.00pm, 1st Space

Researchers from Cardiff University use a unique app developed by Alzheimer's Research UK, designed to put you in the shoes of someone living with dementia. Presented in virtual reality, you will look at everyday life through a new lens.

PLUS academics from Cardiff University working across the disciplines of neuroscience, biomedicine, humanities and philosophy share their research on understanding dementia and the mind.

Do Not Go Gentle Performance & Workshop

10.30am-1.30pm, 1st Space

Everyman Theatre Company will perform script-in-hand excerpts from their play, which takes an unusual look at older people dealing with life's challenges. This will be followed by a discussion and workshop.

Art Workshops

11.00am-1.30pm, The Pottery
2.00pm-3.30pm, The Pottery

Work with artist and academic Dr Catherine Lamont-Robinson to discover how engagement with materials can make a positive impact on people with dementia.

Re-Live: The Memoria Project

11.00am-11.45am, Cinema 2

Stories of strength and courage performed by people living with dementia and family members, followed by a Q&A session with the group.

Join us to find out more about the creative group work Re-Live Theatre are doing with people with dementia and their family members.

Hand i Pocket Funshop Drop-in Workshop, Dutch Table

10.00am-4.00pm

Hand i Pockets are playful sensory textile pockets, created to amuse, comfort and engage people with advanced dementia. Come and create your own, either for a specific friend or family member, or to be donated to somebody with dementia.

This project is run by the CARIAD Research Centre and is a collaboration between Prof. Cathy Treadaway at Cardiff Metropolitan University and Dr Gail Kenning at University of Technology, Sydney.
